UNCLE SAM AND GREATER AMERICA

MADDENED by the universal and outspoken opposition of the Ministry to their candidate, says The Cincinnati Commercial Tribune, the press satellites of Gobbel Papers, Abusing Preachers have opened their mud batteries upon the pulpit. There is a campaign rumor that has not yet been successfully refuted that when the Gods would destroy them they first made evidently the Goebelites are on a heading rush to self destruction. The Church is not a political engine but neither is it an engine of destruction, and it will be at tempest to get off the track. This pointer is given as a free gift, referring to warn them against aiding the sin of acting the fool by their thievry by fraud and robbery by force.

But to the subject of this campaign silliness, Editor URG WOODSON of the Owensboro Messenger, Goebel's leading campaign organ, opens the floodgate of abuse against the Ministers in an editorial attack upon Rev. H. R. COLEMAN, a Methodist Minister of standing and influence, now resident in Louisville. The editor is of some length, but its essence may be gathered from this brief paragraph:

"This little fellow, parading as a Minister of the Gospel, so far as the Messenger knows and believes, was never heard of before, and he is not even known to be in Kentucky in which he lives if, indeed, he was ever heard of there."

But, all at once, Rev. Mr. COLEMAN of Louisville, taken upon himself the modest task of defeating the Democratic nominee for Governor, and now in the whirl of politics, has become the situation hinge on Rev. Mr. COLEMAN. He is the Moses to the Masses of the state out of the wilderness of Godlessness, and the devil take him, he is almost."

There are many plain American people—the majority of us are, in fact, plain American people—who have somehow imbibed the idea that under the provisions of the Federal Constitution, even the individual states have no right to prohibit the exercise of free speech, freedom of conscience and perfect freedom of suffrage. These rights, it is true, are denied by the Goebel Election Law of Kentucky, the Goebel political machine and these Goebel benchmen. But—was it not Mr. BRYAN? Yes, Mr. GOEBEL, a fellow party man of Mr. GOEBEL, says much stress upon the doctrine that Government must be based upon the consent of the governed. The people of Kentucky, the little fellow, the Ministers, etc., will have to be re-educated to the class of Goebelism. For they that are misguided by the GOEBEL facem.

Editor WOODSON's arraignment of Mr. COLEMAN was a silly enough gravity when it appeared, but compared to the later effusion of Editor CHARLES LEWIS of The Shelby Sentinel it is almost decent. Mr. LEWIS or Mr. GOEBEL's attack is vicious.

The especial subject of his present vilification is Dr. KENNEDY, who is probably every man, woman and child in Kentucky—except Editor LEWIS and possibly candidate GOEBEL and his principal followers, who have the most distant relations with Church and Church affairs and but limited public acquaintance—knows Dr. KENNEDY personally or by reputation. Of and to this man Editor LEWIS of candidate GOEBEL's personal and political shibboleths are directed to say:

"He was a 'son of a gun' with many others believed that when Robert Local Option Bill was wrong, and he had the courage to oppose it, a man with a mind and a heart, and a man who, like Rev. Dr. COLEMAN, has descended from the pulpit, to which he is a discredit, to indulge in abuse that would disgrace a wasp pollster in the hole."

The people of Kentucky could rightly read the motives of this caustic sore on the religious body he would never be allowed to pose as a Minister of the Gospel, but would be relocked where he belongs to the slums where his foul mouthed abuse of such men as WILLIAM GOEBEL, CHARLES LEWIS, and CHARLES MCLEOD might find its rightful audience.

It is unfortunately too frequent that the church religion is used to cover the hydra headed venomous snake of treachery and treason, and whenever his evil deeds are discovered such a "cur" is it difficult to find a man who is connected with it until he is kicked from his false position and is shown up in his true light by the pugnacious endeavors to determine his hypocritical whining and false backs.

An apology is perhaps due to the readers of The Commercial Tribune for the reproduction of such a sly and vicious attack upon a most worthy gentleman and estimable Minister. But it is proper to note that the author of the article holds the counterfactual nomination of a discredited Kentucky Democracy should be known.

It is proper that the decent self respecting people of Kentucky and of the country should understand the elements through which he proposes to fasten his baleful influence irrevocably upon the state Government of Kentucky, and, if possible, extend it beyond her borders.

Rev. H. R. COLEMAN is viciously attacked by Editor URG WOODSON because he has decency enough and independence enough to oppose the election of Bill. GOEBEL, is not such a diminutive figure as WOODSON would make one believe.

He happens to be a member of long and honorable standing of Lodge of Oddfellows in this city, he was a colleague in Masonic matters with the late Rev. ROB MORAN, and together they made a tour of the Holy Land, and while he was not the name of a BREWER or a SIRVON, he is altogether the superior of any Goebel editor that THE LEDGER has known.

SOLDIERS THERE.

While All is Quiet at Darien, Ga., There is Intense Excitement Among the Whites.

A NEGRO OUTBREAK IS EXPECTED.

Sheriff Blount Wires to Gov. Candler for Troops Saying That the Situation is Critical.

The Sheriff and His Deputies Continue to Make Arrests of the Rioting Negroes—Twenty-Five of them Sent by Boat to Savannah.

DARIEN, Ga., Aug. 26.—While all was quiet here Friday night, the day was one of great anxiety and intense excitement among the white people. An outbreak by the Negroes had been momentarily expected since the killing by John Delagell, a Negro of Jas. Townsend, a prominent citizen and deputy sheriff of this county.

Friday Sheriff Blount sent the following to Gov. Candler:

"Please order Liberty independent troops to report to me mounted at once. Situation critical. One deputy killed; another wounded."

Col. A. R. Lawton, late commander of the 2d Georgia regiment, U. S. V., also wired to the governor to bring a quantity of carbines and a supply of ammunition for the soldiers. Col. Lawton was here Friday morning to investigate the situation. After a conference with the officials, he returned to Savannah. When the governor received the message from Sheriff Blount he ordered Col. Lawton to return if necessary and take command of the militia. He is now here in this capacity and has enough men to be able to meet any emergency.

The sheriff and his deputies continue to make arrests of the rioting Negroes and the jail has a large number in it notwithstanding that the boat left here Friday morning for Savannah with 25 rioters who had been arrested. This was a precautionary measure to prevent an attack on the jail by the Negro friends of the prisoner and to make room for those who may have been arrested to assume the guard.

The situation here is regarded as critical, although with determined military control it is thought further trouble can be prevented. It is estimated that the Negroes outnumber the white people in this part of Georgia five to one, and the whites are consequently apprehensive.

John Delagell, the Negro who killed Deputy Sheriff Joseph Townsend and was found in the Hopkinton while trying to arrest him, can not be found. He is the son of Henry Delagell, whose arrest for assault started the trouble. The county officials have offered $100 reward for John Delagell, and Gov. Candler will be asked to increase this amount.

While passing through a Negro settlement, five miles from Darien, the Darien & Western train was derailed. This is the second time in two days the train has been derailed. No one was hurt.

ATLANTA, Ga., Aug. 26.—Upon receipt of the alarming telegrams from Sheriff Blount of McIntosh county, Col. Lawton, of Darien, Gov. Candler took immediate steps to render every assistance to those officers. The governor sent the following telegram to Col. Lawton:

"Please wire to Savannah, Ga.; Blount, sheriff wires for liberty troops I do not propensity of sending.

"Hire wired Hughes, captain Liberty troops, to hold command in readiness to respond if you call for them, but to do nothing until you order him. The people of McIntosh county are excited. The situation demands a cool head. You will and must rely on you to execute the work of discretion which I so far away can not exercise. If necessary return to Darien."

"A. D. CANDLER, Governor."

The governor was in conference with Acting Adj't Gen. Bryd during the day. A large number of carbines have been sent to Darien, and a supply of ammunition is en route by special messenger, as the express company refused to carry it, owing to its explosive character.

DARIEN, Ga., Aug. 26.—The 75 members of the 1st Georgia who were left here two days ago, when old man Delagell was taken to Savannah were patrolling the town Friday night. All saloons are closed and the strictest order is maintained. Nearly every Negro left town Friday morning, and Friday night word came that they were massed in Delagell's swamp 12 miles from town. They are known to be armed and a posse of citizens is being organized to meet them at 8 o'clock. They will maintain a guard over the Negroes and prevent them from doing any damage during the night. A telegram was sent to Irwinwick urging all white citizens to come to Darien. A boat was dispatched to bring them to this city. A special train will be ready in case more want to come. The presence of the Negroes indicated to the Negroes who were aware of their superiority in numbers.

One hundred men of the sheriff's force are under orders in Savannah in readiness to move and

If more militia is wanted the Liberty Rifles will sent. The ordering out of the militia troops is within the discretion of Col. Lawton.

DARIEN, Ga., Aug. 26.—A conference was held at 11 o'clock Friday night between Sheriff Blount, militia officials and a citizens committee and it was decided to take decisive action at day light against the Negroes who are massed and armed in Delagell's swamp, 12 miles from the city.

The McIntosh dragons are at their armory here with horses ready. The citizens moved from Darien on a special train for the swamp at 3 o'clock Saturday morning, and the militia, armed with carbines and rifles, The Negroes are armed in defiance of law, and the purpose from it is to surround the swamp and relieve the blacks of their dreams and arrest them.

Two special trains are being prepared.

IDLE NEGROES.

The Crusade Against Them in Little Rock Is Being Pushed Vigorously—A Little Number Leaving the City.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Aug. 26.—The crusade against idle Negroes, which began shortly after the atrocious assaults committed on white women in this city last week, is being pushed vigorously.

Of the 50 Negroes fished as suspects, a large number have been sentenced to jail for vagrancy and water on the charge of vagrancy.

The broad and watery sentences are given under authority of an old law that had not been invoked in many years. Large numbers of Negroes have fled from Little Rock to escape arrest. Three who have been identified as those who assaulted white women have been removed to another county to avoid possible lynching.

Others are still searching for the other two offenders and are arresting every little Negro they find on a charge of vagrancy.

Gov. Jones Friday received a letter from the "National Anti-Mob and Lynch Law Association," of Springfield, O., requesting him "in the name of humanity, law and order, to prevent the lynching of those 40 men in Little Rock."

HAVANA AFFAIRS.

Smuggling in the Cuban Capital Stamped Out By the Activity of Collector Bliss.

STRIKE OF THE MASON'S CONTINUES.

Question as to Who Shall Take Charge of the Estate of a Wealthy Filipino Who Died Recently.

An American Woman Writes to Gen. Gomez—Asks the Troops She May Live to See Him Present.

The General Replies.

HAVANA, Aug. 26.—A Filipino, who had lived some years in Cuba and amassed a considerable fortune, recently died, and the question arose as to who should take charge of the estate. As the man died under American sovereignty, the United States consul, Philip C. Bliss, of the courts of Cuba could not hear with the matter and the military authorities refused to act. The responsibility therefore devolved upon the British consul general, Mr. Lionel Carden, who represents the interests of American citizens here, and Mr. Carden will be in charge of the estate until the return of the son of the deceased friend.

According to the activity of Collector Bliss, smuggling, which used to be rampant in the city of Havana, is now stamped out here. Cuba is a kind of paradise for smugglers, owing to the long, broken coast, and it will take some time to eradicate smuggling altogether. But Collector Bliss is determined to do all in his power to put an end to it. He offers $5 per cent. of the value of the confiscated goods to any custom house inspector capturing a smuggler.

OPOORTO, Aug. 26.—There has been a great exodus of the population since the government announced its intention to establish a sanitary zone around Oporto with the view of restricting the spread of the plague.

The proposal meets with much opposition. Dr. Pina Callado, the governor of Oporto, has resigned as a protest. It is asserted that the cordon if established, will produce a famine more injurious than the plague. The railroads are now closed and the only exit is by sea.

A Scientific Party Engaged in Unearthing the Remains of the Largest Reptile Known to Science in Wyoming.

LARAMIE, Wyo., Aug. 26.—Fossil remains are being received daily by the University of Wyoming from the scientists now operating in the fossil beds beyond Medicine Bow. Three notable parts are located within 30 miles of the river mouth at this point. The University of Wyoming is proceeding rapidly with the task of unearthing the largest reptile known to science. When the component parts of this creature are placed in the final work of restoration, the result will be unique in scientific history.

COLONEL, the head of the Carnegie museum, is in charge of another valuable quarry, and the American historical and natural history is operating a third, and the fossil. Advises just received announce that the returns exceed the discoveries of any previous year. Other scientists are moving from point to point in the Platte canon studying geological formations and digging up saurians and ichthyosaurs which are plentiful everywhere and are in a fine state of preservation.

THE CORDON AT OPORTO.
